

Please do not further deregulate Broadcast ownership. Having only a few companies own an larger supply of information and news will hamper what gets to the public. This will cause a great deterioration in public knowledge. You know this though already, but you don't care.